Short Talks On Advertising.

(Series No. 3.)

Opportunity at the door is the indicator that points to the time when your success begins-provided you take advantage of it.

We are devoting this space this week to the suggestion to you that this is the time when opportunity is loudly knocking at the doors of every one, and particularly for the benefit of the merchant, who, with the false idea of economy, hesitates to make a small outlay for the purpose

Did it ever occur to you that most of the large businesses throughout the country owe their astonnaing success in no small part to advertising? That fact alone should be sufficient argument in its favor,

The opportunity that is knocking at your door spells Tee-Dee Want Ads., and it is an opportunity because it will enable you to get your name and your goods before the public at the small cost of one cent per word. Tee-Dee Want Ads, pave the way; later you will be able to make a larger outlay in accordance with the necessities of your trade. Therefore, don't drive opportunity away, but meet the issue at once and try Tee-Dee Want Ads.
